MR. KANNANTHODATH JANARDANAN NAIR: Sir, with reference to part (a) of the question I wanted to know the amounts in each case and that has not been given in the answer.

MR. M. K NILAKANTA AIYAR: That is given in the statement as Appendix II.

MR. M. SIVATHANU PILLAI: May I know the reason why the figure relating to the amount of royalty collected by Government has jumped so high for 1114?

PRESIDENT: Due to the present war.

MR. M. K. NILAKANTA AIYAR: Because royalty is assessed according to lease year and not according to the official year.

Recruitment to Public Service.

1887. * MR. MURUKUMPUZHA V. KUNJUKRISHNAN: Will the Government be pleased to state:

(a) whether in the Government order regarding recruitment to public service the intention of Government was that the reservation of 40 per cent. of appointments in the intermediate division to backward communities should operate with reference to the number of recruitments actually made in each class of appointments:

(b) if the answer to part (a) is in the affirmative, whether in the actual recruitments being advised by the Public Service Commissioner from time to time this rule is observed:

(c) what is the total number of candidates advised for appointment in the intermediate division since this G. O. regarding recruitment to public service came into force; and

(d) how many of those appointments have been advised to be given to candidates belonging to backward communities under the above reservation of 40 per cent.

DR. H. PARAMESWARAN (Secretary in charge of the duties of the Public Service Commissioner): (a) In G. O. R. Dis. No. 893/Genl. dated 25th June 1935, no intention as to separate types of appointments is stated. In rules 30 and 32 of the Public Service Recruitment Rules, separate selective tests for separate types of appointments are provided for, with a reservation in each of 40 per cent, for the inadequately represented communities and not to the backward communities.

(b) Yes.

(c) 1757 up to 3rd June 1940.

(d) 443 appointments were given to candidates belonging to the inadequately represented communities up to 3rd June 1940.
